SENIOR CLASS HISTORY

In the year of our Lord, 1945, over fifty of us started our period of pageship in the castle of Madison High School. At the beginning of our first year, we chose the following representatives to the Court: Chief Page, Milo Kline; Assistant-chief Page, Wayne Hesch; Scribe, Lois Abbiehl; Shecklekeeper, George Selner.

During this first year we enjoyed many new adventures with Mr. Kintzel and Miss O'Connor encouraging us to work together with determination, and we would find our dream of knighthood not only a dream--but a reality. Some of the escapades of our first year in the Castle were our initiation, a party at the Royal Castle, exchanging names at Christmas, and a private skating party at the Osceola rink. Mr. Eshelman, our director, also very kindly helped orientate us to our new premises.

And so we went through our first year of pageship, a little timid, but each determined to work for our goal--knighthood.

Summer vacation gave way to our second year, and we again elected our leaders. Milo Kline was chosen Chief Page; Harold Hesch, Assistant-chief Page; Leonard Bazyk, Scribe; and Patsy Weigel, Shecklekeeper.

To our amazement, we found ourselves with many studies and tasks to do and the year slipped quickly by. But between assignments, we found time to enjoy class parties, skating parties, and many good laughs from our friends.

Our second year of pageship gave us a more prominent position in the social world with that "shy look" gone from our faces and the look of "ability" there.

We then returned to the Castle as Squires. Milo Kline was again chosen to lead the group with Jay Beehler to assist him. Lois Abbiehl was elected to keep the minutes of our meetings and Jeanette Oberly, to take care of the finances.

The busy year started out with a play, "A Little Honey," which was given October 20 and 21 and was a great success. Next we launched our magazine sale, chose our class rings, and had a few parties. The big event of the year was the Junior-Senior Prom which was held in the school gym. Jeanette Oberly was appointed chairman of the prom, and all of us Squires were very happy with the success of it. Ted Gallagan and his orchestra played for the dancing, and Lois Abbiehl was crowned queen of the class.

At the end of our third year at the Castle, we left with grins on our faces and love in our hearts for everyone, wondering what new experiences our last year would bring.

When we arrived at the Castle for the last year, we were happy and yet a little sad to think of leaving the place where we had had much fun. We resumed our parties, and studies once more, with Milo Kline as our chief leader for the fourth year. Richard LaFree was elected to help him share the burden. Lois Abbiehl was again chosen to keep the minutes of the meetings and Bill Trippel to take care of the finances.

First on the list was the initiation of the Freshies. What a nice feeling to reign supreme--at least for one day! Then there were class pictures which were taken at Robertson's during November. Name cards and graduation announcements were also ordered.

On March 31 and April 1 our play, "The Baby-Sitter," was presented at the Royal Palace.

To make money for our class trip, a bake sale and scrap drive were sponsored by the class.

A very beautiful prom was given in our honor by the juniors on April 30. After that graduation festivities sneaked to the Castle door, and on Sunday, May 15, baccalaureate services were held in the afternoon. We were graduated on May 16 and two days later left on a bus for Detroit. We boarded a boat to cruise to Niagra Falls. On May 20 we returned home a little tired, but happy, from a fun-filled trip. We shall always look back to our friends and teachers and think of the wonderful days we spent together at school.

SENIOR CLASS WILL

I, Lois Abbiehl, will my ability to have a good time to anybody who can have as good a time as I have had in school.

I, Jay Beehler, will my love of the opposite sex to Devon Schrock.

I, Christena Bokhart, will locker 95 to anyone who can come out in as good a shape as they went in.

I, Jack Callahan, will my bookkeeping ability to anybody dumb enough to take it.

I, Robert Campbell, will my ability to keep the girls away to anyone who can accomplish such a feat.

I, Eleanor Davidhizar, will my quiet attitude to Betty Gostola.

I, Benjamin Fehr, will my bashfulness to Howard Gall.

I, Arthur Gilman, will my freckles to Phyllis Young.

I, June Hawkins, will my ability to go steady for three years to Dorothy Schlarb.

I, Harold Hesch, will my ability to make good grades to Bobby Schmeltz.

I, Wayne Hesch, will my big wad of overworked gum to Miss Pekarski.

I, Richard Hill, will my dark wavy hair to James Schmeltz.

I, Peaches Holley, will my athletic ability to Helen Severns.

I, Charles Klatt, will my love of hillbilly music to Shirley Weigel.

I, Milo Kline, will my car to anyone who can drive it.

I, Richard LaFree, will my Bremen girls to Eugene Schutz.

I, Tom Lambert, will any ole' thing to anybody who will take it.

We, Mary Zeltwanger and Phyllis Laidig, will our devoted friendship of twelve years to anyone who can stand each other that long.

I, Helen Monhaut, will my witty remarks to Doris Berkey.

I, Elaine Rhoade, will my job at the Melrose to Mardell Anthony.

I, Barbara Rinehart, will my blonde hair to anyone who's tired of using peroxide.

I, Dwain Sauer, will my ability to sleep through agriculture class to Wilbur Christman.

I, Harriet Schrock, will my G. A. A. presidency to Opal Fries.

I, Helen Scott, will my height to Charles Battles.

I, George Selner, will my one arm driving to anyone capable of doing it.

I, Kathleen Steinbaugh, will my big brown eyes to Donna Hill.

I, Joyce Stuber, will my nurse's aide work to Cecelia Monhout.

I, William Trippel, will my bulging muscles to Ted James.

We, the trio, Janice Mottice, Jeanette Oberly, and Patsy Weigel, will our singing ability to Joe Wagner, Duane Laidig, and Roland Klein.

I, Mary Kathryn Veevaete, will my giggles to Donna Barkey.

I, Julia Verstraete, will my trousseau to any junior girl.

I, Betty Weiss, will my reserved manner to Don Schlarb.

I, Richard Whittaker, will my speeches from speech class to any junior.

I, Eugene Zahner, will my knowledge of John Deere's to John Fehr.

To the faculty, we extend warm thanks.

To the juniors, we will our ability to do things and do them well.

To the sophomores, we leave our books with the pages torn out and our ability to play hooky.

To the freshmen, we will our surplus of midnight oil for them to burn in the years to come.

PROPHECY

IT IS A SPRING MORNING IN 1964. THE TREES ARE BEGINNING TO BUD AND THE BIRDS ARE BUILDING THEIR NESTS. I HOPPED ON MY JET-PROPELLED TRACTOR TO LOOK OVER MY BACK "40". I HAD NOT BEEN BACK THERE SINCE NOVEMBER, BECAUSE THE SNOW WAS SKY-HIGH.

AS I TURNED THE CORNER, THERE LOOMED BEFORE ME A LARGE, WHITE BUILDING. ON A SIGN WAS SCRAWLED THIS NAME, "RUBBERNECK OBSERVATORY".

IN AN ASTONISHED DAZE, I TUMBLED OFF MY JET-TRACTOR. I CAUTIOUSLY CREPT TO THE WINDOW. ON A PERMANENT SCAFFOLDING MANY, MANY FLOORS ABOVE MY HEAD, I SAW A MAN PEERING THROUGH AN OVERWHELMING TELESCOPE. I SPIED THE ENTRANCE TO AN ELEVATOR, SLIPPED IN, AND PRESSED THE BUTTON MARKED "UP", AND UP I WENT.

STANDING BESIDE THE MAGNIFICENT INSTRUMENT WAS NO ONE ELSE BUT BILL TRIPPEL. AFTER HE HAD GOTTEN OUT OF HIGH SCHOOL, HE WAS GRADUATED FROM THE "BLOW-ME-UP" SCHOOL OF SCIENCE AS A PROFESSOR. TO MY SURPRISE, HE DID NOT LOOK A DAY OLDER THAN THE DAY HE WAS GRADUATED FROM M. H. S. HE SAID HE WAS IN A HURRY TO COMPLETE AN IMPORTANT FORMULA, AS HE DISAPPEARED DOWN THE ELEVATOR SHAFT.

WHILE I WAS EXAMINING THE TELESCOPE, INSTRUCTIONS CAME FROM THE CONTROL ROOM. THE VOICE OVER THE LOUD SPEAKER WAS TOM LAMBERT'S. HE IS AN AUTHORITY ON RADIO MATTERS.

"GRASP THAT LEVER WITH YOUR RIGHT HAND, SWING IT TO THE LEFT," CALLED TOM.

I WAS GETTING MORE EXCITED! WHAT WAS I GOING TO SEE? I KEPT MY EYES GLUED TO THE LENS. THE VISION WAS BLURRY AT FIRST, BUT BECAME CLEARER. AT LAST I REALLY SAW THE MAN ON THE MOON! HE HAD ACTED AS GUIDE TO ART GILMAN, RICK HILL, BEN FEHR, AND RICHARD LAFREE ON A TRIP TO VISIT THE MOON'S CRATERS AND WAS REFRESHING THEM WITH GREEN CHEESE AND CRACKERS.

I TURNED THE TELESCOPE A LITTLE TO THE LEFT. GEORGE SELNER WAS DOING SOME CONTOUR FARMING. HE DEVELOPED A NEW TYPE OF CORN. PLANT IT ONE MONTH, PICK IT THE NEXT. KATHLEEN STEINBAUGH HIS WIFE, WAS A FORMER BEAUTY QUEEN. THEY WENT PROSPECTING FOR A NEW HOME AND ENDED ON THE MOON.

SOME MILES AWAY THE FORMER JUNE HAWKINS IS TAKING DICTATION FROM HER BOSS HUSBAND, JACK CALLAHAN. THEY MET WHILE GOING TO HIGH SCHOOL. HE WAS A FORMER BASKETBALL STAR.

MY INVESTIGATION CONTINUED. JAY BEEHLER, A TRAVELING SALESMAN, WAS LIMPING ALONG. HIS LEFT LEG IS COVERED WITH A BANDAGE. HE WAS KNOCKING AT A DOOR. THE DOOR OPENED, PHYLLIS LAIDIG AND MARY ANN ZELTWANGER, THE MOON'S FAMOUS OLD MAIDS, STEPPED OUT. THEY HAD JUST RETURNED FROM A TRIP AROUND THE PLANETS.

BEING SO CONCERNED WITH MY EXPLORATION, I HARDLY FELT THE TAP ON MY SHOULDER. STANDING BEFORE ME WAS ELEANOR DAVIDHIZAR. SHE WAS TAKING HER SECOND GRADE PUPILS ON A TOUR OF THE OBSERVATORY.

BEING A LITTLE HUNGRY I THOUGHT I'D HAVE SOME LUNCH. BOB CAMPBELL WAS THE MANAGER. HE WAS CREDITED WITH MAKING HIS FAMOUS SOUP. HIS TWO AIDS WERE ELAINE RHOADE AND CHRISTENA BOKHART. ELAINE HAD HAD EXPERIENCE SODA JERKING. SHE IN TURN WAS TEACHING CHRIS.

Sitting a few booths away from me was Peaches Holley, star pitcher of the South Bend Blue Sox. In her career she had pitched a record breaking "no-hit game."

Eager to return to the telescope, I took the "up in a second" elevator. This time I knew exactly how to operate it.

During my school days I had heard a lot about the -Man from Mars." Sure enough, I found him. He was Milo Kline. Milo ran a used car lot. He had one car very dear to him, a model "A" Ford.

In one of Mar's big cities was a poster saying "Now Showing, one day only." Inside was Jeanette Oberly, Janice Mottice, and Patsy Weigel. They had completed one of their songs for the evening performance. The girls gained their singing popularity in high school.

Supplying the music for the trio was Duaine Hesch. He had one of the snappiest bands on Mars. Dwain Sauer played the bass horn. His musical talent was discovered long before he could spell. Betty Weiss was renowned for her clarinet ability. She joined the band in its early days.

Handling the words and lyrics for the band was the great Dick Whittaker. He had composed more songs than all of the composers put together.

On a radio network of his own, Charles Klatt serenaded all the hillbilly girls. He was swamped with requests from fan clubs all over the universe.

Maneuvering the telescope to the right, I found Lois Abbiehl's modeling school. Its enrollment was very large. She planned this career while still a 4-Her.

The Milky Way was next. Eugene Zahner was currying one of his cows. He was sending 30-ten-gallon cans of milk a day to market--that's why the Milky Way! His wife, the former Helen Scott, was busily engaged in spring house cleaning. During her high school days she was one of the best typists in school.

Milky Way High School was about three miles from the Zahner farm. Harriet Schrock was the principal. Her life long ambition was to teach school.

Harold Hesch was head coach at Mars University. He held this position since he resigned from professional football some years ago. He had held several records of yard gainage per game in football.

From Mars I turned to Venus. On this planet Mary Kathryn Veevaete had discovered a real Fountain of Youth. During her course of study as a beautician, she found the secret formula. Those drinking the water were restored to youth.

Venus was also famous for a great hospital. It was started by two young women doctors, Barbara Rinehart and Joyce Stuber. The two girls intended to be nurses, but the school knowing their real talent gave them "M. D." degrees.

My last classmate was Julia Verstraete. She lived on the Little Dipper. While on the world, she married a Studebaker executive. They had established one of the biggest factories on the star.

Knowing that all of my old classmates were prospering, I, Helen Monhaut, took a deep sigh, and wished my classmates the luck of the whole universe.

The fall of 1948 found the class assembled to elect Joe Wagner as president for this important year. Assisting him were Eugene Schutz, vice-president; Betty Gostola, secretary; and Richard Bricker, treasurer, Mrs. Haslanger and Mr. Birk were our advisors.

On October 28 and 29, dramatic talents were displayed in the presentation of a three-act comedy, The Adorable Imp, under the direction of Mrs. Haslanger. Following this, the class conducted a record-breaking magazine sale to help swell the treasury. During the holidays a party was held at the home of Donna Hill. Then efforts were turned toward April 30, the night of the prom. Using "Bon Voyage" as a theme, the gymnasium became a steamship for the night. Mardell Anthony was chairman of the affair.

After the excitement of another year subsided, the sophomore class held a meeting and elected their class officers to guide them through the coming year. George Englehardt was elected president. Wayne Beehler held the position of vice-president. Helen Severns took the secretarial position, and Romaine Frick collected the money.

In November a party was given by the class and guests were invited. Everyone had an enjoyable time and refreshments were plentiful.

Fifty-four of us started our career in high school as "green freshies." We selected Jack Schmeltz to lead us through our first crucial year; Dale Hesch was picked to assist him; Shirley Birk took the minutes; and Marlene Slosshandled our financial affairs. The highlight of the year was the traditional initiation. This was followed by our two parties at the school. We are now looking forward to our sophomore year.

F. F. A.

The officers of the Madison Township chapter of Future Farmers of America for the school year of 1948-1949 were as follows: Rick Hill, president; Richard LaFree, vice-president; Wayne Beehler, secretary; Eugene Zahner, treasurer; George Selner, reporter; and George Engelhardt, watchdog.

The primary aim of the Future Farmers of America is the development of agricultural leadership, cooperation and citizenship. Some of the specific purposes for which this organization was formed are: to create a love for country life, to strengthen the confidence of farm boys and young men in themselves and their work, to create more interest in the intelligent choice of farming occupations, to participate in cooperative effort, and to encourage and practice thrift.

Activities which the F. F. A. sponsored were: a skating party jointly with the 4-H, a pest control contest, a circus in the school gym, a scrap drive, garden seed sales, and an adult farmer's school every Thursday evening in the school. It is certain that the farmers enjoyed these classes, evidenced by the large turnouts at each meeting.

A purebred Aberdeen-Angus steer was purchased as a club project. This steer is to be shown at the International Livestock Exposition next fall.

The F. F. A. also sponsored livestock and dairy judging contests. Last fall the livestock judging team competed in the National F. F. A. Livestock Judging Contest in Kansas City, Missouri, October 15. The members of this team were John Smith, Don Anthony, Devon Birk, and Wayne Beehler.

Girls Athletic Association is open to all girls in high school. Its purpose is to stimulate interest in girls' health and physical activities and to promote ideals of friendship and sportsmanship.

During the year the club was very active and participated in many activities--softball, volleyball, volleyring, basketball, tumbling, rhythms, and track. The seniors won the softball interclass tourney; the freshmen placed second. In the final interclass basketball tourney, the juniors lost to the seniors.

Madison's softball team topped the Elkhart G. A. A. in two games. Scores were 13-11 and 14-10. Three games were played by the basketball squad: Wakarusa (here) 30, Madison 35; Jamestown (there) 14, Madison 45; Wakarusa (there) 26, Madison 14.

Skating and initiation parties were held. In March the mothers were entertained, and later in the spring they played hostess to Elkhart, Wakarusa, and Lakeville G. A. A.'s for a volleyball playday.

Officers of the organization are: Harriet Schrock, president; Donna Hill, vice-president; Arlene Geyer, secretary; and Mardell Anthony, treasurer.

First Row: D. Anthony, M. Anthony, S. Birk, A. Lambert, P. Weaver, M. Zahner, B. Barden, M. VonGruenigen, R. Frick, H. Severns, D. Schlarb, and P. Holley.

Third Row: M. Sloss, G. Boocher, L. Klein, J. Truex, E. Mikel, Arlene Geyer, J. Marker, S. Weigel, B. Pittman, D. Hill, and B. Gostola.
Fourth Row: Mrs. Bowman, M. Veevaete, H. Monhaut, B. Weiss, C. Richard, R. Manges, M. Myers, D. Barkey, R. Hill, A. Bokhart, and H. Schrock.

BASKETBALL: D. Hill, C. Bokhart, P. Holley, R. Frick, H. Monhaut, H. Schrock, D. Schlarb, H. Scott.

VOLLEYBALL: P. Holley, C. Bokhart, S. Birk, P. Robinson, R. Frick, C. Richards, D. Schlarb, H. Schrock.

SOFTBALL: D. Hill, P. Holley, D. Schlarb, H. Schrock, A. Bokhart, M. Veevaete, C. Bokhart, R. Hill, M. Selner.

VOLLEYRING: P. Holley, S. Weigel, B. Barden, H. Schrock, D. Hill, D. Barkey, M. Anthony, D. Anthony.

"I pledge
my head to clearer thinking, my heart to greater loyalty,
my hands to larger service,
my health to better living for my club, my community, and my country," and the National Club motto, "To make the best better," are the aims and guide of every club member in all he does each day.

One of the most successful years was experienced during 1948. It was obvious that the Madison and Penn 4-H Club had stolen the show when the fair came to a close. In the beef-feeding classes, Jim Schmeltz took top honors with his grand champion Angus steer. John Smith had the reserve champion. Rick Hill placed third; Gene Watkins, fourth; and Jim Marks, fifth.

Shirley Birk had the grand champion Holstein heifer in the dairy class, and Stanley Hoover had the grand champion Guernsey. Craig Kintzel's barrow was grand champion in the swine division. Gertrude Beehler had reserve champion. Grand champion gilt was owned by Devon Birk. The reserve champion belonged to Arthur Fehr. First place in the medium weight barrow class went to Don Schlarb; in the lightweight class, to Wayne Beehler.

Other winners were: Tom Lambert, champion Chester White; Wayne Beehler, champion Berkshire; Jim Meyers, champion spotted Poland China; Art Fehr, champion Duroc; and Devon Birk, champion Hampshire.
